

STUDENT RESOURCES

Anchored4Life

Anchored for Life is a peer-to-peer club to connect youth while building change and resiliency skills. The club provides opportunities for peers to enhance social skills, learn leadership skills, build character, improve self-esteem and integrate into their community. Youth will learn these change and resiliency skills using the Club features.

Tutor.com

Tutor.com is an online tutoring company that offers FREE one-to-one help from certified teachers 24/7 to military children. Learning takes place in a secure, online classroom using an interactive whiteboard, file sharing and instant messaging to work through student's problems. This web site offers students of all ages the help they need to succeed in school and beyond.

Department of Defense Education Activity \(DODEA\) Career and College Ready

An educational resource for military families, military leaders and school leaders from The Department of Defense Education Activities Educational Partnership. It provides information on important policies, procedures, and best practices that are critical to supporting the educational needs of military families. It also includes information on military terms and acronyms.

Military One Source

Military OneSource is a free service provided by the Department of Defense to support military members and their families with concerns like money management, spouse employment, education, parenting, relocation, deployment, and family members with special needs. Services are available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week from any location in the world.

Military Child Education Coalition \(MCEC\)

MCEC provides support to military-connected students through peer-to-peer mentoring programs, the Frances Hesselbein Student leadership Program, student-focused webinars, and our Student Advisory Council.

Military One Source Employment and Education

Military OneSource offers information and tools to help you prepare your children for education and employment success. Providing the best possible education for your youth and teens so they can reach their dreams is a parental goal. Military OneSource offers information and tools on helping you give your children the best chance for success. You'll find ways to help your youth and teens foster a love for learning, develop life skills that extend far beyond the classroom, help them transition to new schools, and prepare for college and the workplace. Tap into the support and resources of your military community to help you raise smart, responsible children.

Sesame Street

The site has activities, workshops and fun things for children of different ages. It aims to provide support and significant resources for military families with children who are experiencing the effects of deployment, multiple deployments, and combat-related injuries. The site is dedicated to helping children grow smarter, stronger, and kinder.

Cirkled In – The Go-to hub for expert articles and resources from college apps to career hacks including resume and portfolio building, college applications and admissions, scholarships and financial aids, internships and job opportunities, etc.

The appearance of a website on this page does not imply official endorsement by the DoD; It is merely provided as resource for your convenience and consideration.